

AIIMS RAIPUR BEGINS BTELS COURSE FOR POLICE PERSONNELS

Now Police personnels were trained with “Basic Trauma Emergency & Life Saving (BTELS) Skill Course” by AIIMS, Raipur. Day after training to CRPF on 16th January, AIIMS started to train police forces. The AIG of police himself was present through out the course at the AIIMS campus near Tatibandh on 17th January 2014. The course made by AIIMS is very simple & useful. We will continue this training in future as well he said. Professor S.K. Dhaneria dean, AIIMS said that BTELS course is the comprehensive course module developed to train the people in Basic Trauma & Disaster management. The Director AIIMS Professor Nitin M Nagarkar said that AIIMS will continue training regularly. The module of the course is designed by Dr R.K. Ramchandani, faculty of the course. Dr Santhosh Rao conducted the Inauguration meeting. The airways management in trauma, tricks of helmet removal, methods of control of bleeding, rescue breathing, management of cardiac arrest and triage etc were trained on manikins by Dr Ajoy Behera, Dr. Rupa Mehta, Dr. Santhosh Rao, Dr. Srinivasan Swaminathan, Dr. Monica Khetarpal Dr. Shreemanta Dash & Dr Ramchandani. It needs to be specified that the AIIMS Raipur has already given training to CISF, CRPF & Police and will continue the course to train these peoples. BTELS Course has got excellent response in its feedback form by all CISF, CRPF & Police personnel.
