

Key Note on World Cancer Day Observation

On 4/2/2016 AIIMS, College of Nursing in collaboration with Department of ENT & Department of Oncology & Radio diagnosis marks the Annual observation of World Cancer Day. On the theme “We Can I Can” which was intended to emphasis on the individual power and Society as a whole to reduce the global Cancer burden.

The programme was inaugurated by Director AIIMS Raipur, Dr. Prof. Nitin M Nagarkar at 9 am in AYUSH Building AIIMS Raipur.

To create public awareness, an exhibition was organized by B. Sc( Hons) Nursing 3rd ( Batch 2013) year students on various topics such as meaning, causes, warning sign of cancer, various treatment modalities & complication associated with cancer treatment and its management, misconceptions regarding treatment & Diagnosis of cancer , prevention & screening of cancer, diagnostic algorithm of cancer & various complications associated with cancer treatment and different ways to manage them .

Through video, health education related presentation were displayed for the patients and relatives attending various OPDs at AIIMS, Raipur.

A competition was held among various students & evaluated by the expert panel of judges from AIIMS, Raipur (C.G).