The activities involved are time bound and it is expected that no extension of time for performance of any activity/ activities will either be sought or given in this project. However, if at any time during the course of the contract, the Bidder encounters conditions impeding the timely delivery of the items and the performance of the service, the Bidder shall promptly notify to the AIIMS in writing the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). The AIIMS will evaluate the situation and in the exceptional circumstances and in the interest of work may extend the Bidder's time for execution of said item of work, But in no case extension shall be granted having adverse effect on scheduled conduct of examination. The dates declared for examinations are absolute unless changed by the AIIMS on its own.

Delay on part of the Bidder in the performance of its delivery obligations shall render the bidder liable to the imposition of penalty unless an extension of time is agreed upon.

Termination for Default

Either Party may, without prejudice to any other course of action for breach of contract, by written notice of 60 days to the other party, terminate the agreement in whole or in part, if:

- The defaulting party fails to perform any or all of the obligations within the time period(s) specified in the agreement or any extension thereof granted, by the other party.
- The quality of the delivery of various tasks is not up to the satisfaction of the AIIMS.
- The defaulting party fails to perform any other obligation under the agreement.

In the event of the AIIMS terminating the contract in whole or in part, the AIIMS may procure, upon such terms and in such a manner as it deems appropriate, items or services similar to those undelivered, and the Bidder shall be liable to the AIIMS for any excess costs for such similar items or services. However, the Bidder shall continue with the performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.

The Bidder shall stop the performance of the contract from the effective date of termination and hand over all the documents, data, equipment etc. to AIIMS for which payment has been made. The Bidder may withdraw items, for which payment has not been made. No consequential damages shall be payable to the Bidder in the event of termination. The payment shall be made by AIIMS for all the services rendered by Bidder till such date of termination.

In case of termination of contract, all Bank Drafts/ FDRs furnished by the Bidder by way of Bid Security / Performance Security shall stand forfeited.

In case of suspension/termination, the Bidder shall be liable to pay compensation for any direct loss or additional liability, if incurred due to completion of work by another agency.

Termination for convenience

The AIIMS, by written notice of at least 30 days sent to the Bidder, may terminate the contract, in whole or in part thereof, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that termination is for the AIIMS's convenience and also the extent to which performance of the Bidder under the contract is terminated, and the date on which such termination becomes effective.

The AIIMS shall accept the items/services, which are completed and ready for delivery within 30 days after the Bidder's receipt of notice of termination, at the contract terms and prices.

For the remaining items/services, the AIIMS may elect:

- To have any portion completed and delivered at the contract terms and prices; and /or
- To cancel the remainder and pay to the bidder an agreed amount for partially completed items/services and for services previously accomplished by the Bidder.

Termination for Insolvency

Either party may at any time terminate the contract by giving notice to the other party, if the one party becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the Bidder, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy, which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the AIIMS.

Suspension

The AIIMS may, after giving a written notice of suspension to the Bidder, and considering the representation, if any, submitted to him within a period of 15 days from receipt of such notice, suspend all payments to the Bidder, if the Bidder fails to perform any of its obligations (including the carrying out of the services) provided that such notice of suspension:

- Shall specify the nature of the failure and
- Shall direct the Bidder to remedy such failure within a specified period from the date of receipt of such notice of suspension by the Bidder.

The AIIMS may engage some other agency for the completion of suspended work, which will be carried out at the risk, and cost of the Bidder.

Confidentiality

The Bidder and their personnel shall not, either during implementation or after completion of the project, disclose any proprietary or confidential information relating to the services, agreement or the AIIMS's business or operations without the prior consent of the AIIMS.

AIIMS also reciprocally agrees with the Bidder that all information concerning trade secrets, know-how, technical data, research, products, development, inventions, processes, engineering techniques, strategies, internal procedures, employees and business opportunities, its customers either present or prospective and services rendered by the Bidder to such of its customers along with the information pertaining to its businesses and the proprietary information of the Bidder described herein as "confidential information", belonging to the Bidder and which may come into the possession or custody of AIIMS in the course of providing services by the Bidder hereunder shall not be disclosed or divulged to any third parties or make use or allow others to make use thereof either for its own benefit or for the benefit of others directly or indirectly. (Subject to provisions of the law of the land).

Force Majeure

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bid Document, the Bidder shall not be liable for forfeiture of security, liquidated damages or termination for default, if and to the extent that, it's delay in performance or other failures to perform its obligations under the agreement is the result of an event of Force Majeure.

For purposes of this clause "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the Bidder and not involving the Bidder's fault or negligence and which was not foreseeable. Such events may include wars or revolutions, fires, floods, earth quakes, epidemics. The preventive majors for fire breakdown must be followed otherwise will not be applicable here. The decision of the AIIMS, regarding Force Majeure shall be final and binding on the Bidder.

If a Force Majeure situation arises, the Bidder shall promptly notify to the AIIMS in writing, of such conditions and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the AIIMS in writing, the Bidder shall continue to perform its obligations under the agreement as far as reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event. Either party may, terminate this agreement by giving a written notice of a minimum 15 days to the other party, if as a result of Force Majeure; the Bidder is unable to perform a material portion of the services for a period of more than 30 days. All the payments for services rendered till such date termination shall be made by AIIMS.

Resolution of Disputes

The AIIMS and the Bidder shall make every effort to resolve amicably by direct informal negotiation, any disagreement or dispute that may arise between them under or in connection with the Contract. If, after 20 days from the commencement of such informal negotiations, the AIIMS and the Bidder are unable to resolve, amicably a contract dispute, either party may require that the dispute be referred for resolution to the formal mechanism. In all matters and disputes arising there under, the sole arbitrator shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing, who shall decide the claim and its decision shall be final and binding on both the parties. However, during the period of doubt, disagreement or dispute, both the Bidder and the AIIMS shall ensure that the Project works in a normal way. Such doubts, disputes and disagreement shall not give any reason or freedom to either the AIIMS or the Bidder to interfere in or prevent normal functioning of the Project. The Arbitration proceedings shall be governed by the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996.

Legal Jurisdiction

All legal disputes between the parties shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts situated in Chhattisgarh (India) only.

Local Conditions

The Bidder shall inspect the cities/sites of operation and shall satisfy himself of the cities/site conditions and availability of required resources and shall apprise himself of the procedure for engagement of agencies and shall collect any other information that may be required before submitting the bid. Claims and objections due to ignorance about site conditions shall not be considered after the submission of bid.

Responsibilities of the Bidder

The bidder shall be responsible for the successful conduct and processing of online examination (Computer Based Test) as per mutually agreed between both the parties in the agreement.
